

Drachenwald Company of Archers

Purpose of the Company

The Company is designed to promote archery within the Kingdom of Drachenwald. This will be done through the recognition, education, and training of archers.

Goals of the Company

The Company's goals are:

- To provide a forum for members.
- To educate.
- To gather archery resources of historical and educational value.
- To honour the archers of the Kingdom.

Leadership of the Company

- Captain General of Archers is the head of the Company. This person will represent the Company before the Crown, and reviews and amends a set of rules for the Company as needed.

Membership

- The Company is open to all archers of the Kingdom of Drachenwald who meet any requirements set out in the rules.
- The rules will lay out ranks within the Company that archers can obtain by proven effort and skill within archery.
- All members should be of good standing within the Society for Creative Anachronism; however, they are not required to hold paid membership.
